

Highlights Of CCBA's Emergency Rules For the 2020 One-Day Virtual Conference

1. Submitting Call-Ups to CCBA
 - a. August 24, 2020, 5 pm: deadline to submit call-ups.
 - i. This is a firm deadline. No grace period.
 - b. September 14, 2020, 5 pm: deadline to submit revised call ups only for resolutions for which amendments have been posted (see below re: amendments)
2. Debate at the virtual conference
 - a. Any resolution called up by at least three delegations will be debated at the conference
 - b. Any resolution called up by fewer than three delegations will be voted on without debate
 - c. ResComm recommendation become the final conference position for resolutions that are not called up as normal.

Limited debate on all resolutions that get debated. However, the CCBA Board may allow full debate for one resolution depending on time and the amount of interest in full debate on a resolution.
 - d. Limited debate will consist of the Chair's intro plus 4 speakers as follows:
 - i. 1 minute for Chair's introduction of the resolution
 - ii. 2 minutes for proponent to open
 - iii. 2 minutes each for two speakers in opposition and one speaker in favor
 - iv. 1 minute for proponent to close
 - e. IF the Chair calls for full debate on any resolution, full debate will consist of the Chair's intro plus 8 speakers as follows:
 - i. 1 minute for Chair's introduction of the resolution
 - ii. 3 minutes for proponent to open
 - iii. 3 minutes each for four speakers in opposition and three speakers in favor
 - iv. 1.5 minutes for proponent to close.
 - f. As usual, we will follow Robert's Rules for the debate.
3. Amendments to resolutions
 - a. September 4, 2020, 5 pm – deadline to submit amendments in writing.
 - i. There is no grace period, and amendments will be rejected if they do not comply with the CCBA rules for amendments.
 - b. There will be no amendments on the floor at the conference
4. Voting
 - a. All voting will be electronic
 - b. There will be no division called as electronic voting gives a vote count
5. Submitting written arguments in support of resolutions
 - a. August 24, 2020, 5 pm: deadline for any delegation wishing to submit a written argument in favor of any resolutions, which will be posted on the CCBA website and circulated to conference attendees
